

Labeling Paints

In the past I have had problems with the paint labels rubbing off of my paint jars. Now I don't know what shade of green I have in the that bottle. My solution was to label every bottle as I buy them. I use masking tape and a circle template and mini razor blade I “liberated” from my wife's scrapbook supplies.

I use the template and razor to cut a bunch of little circles in the tape.

